

An Introduction to Sociology:
Sixteen Essential Ideas from Classic and Contemporary Thinkers

Fred Pampel

Table of Contents

Preface

Chapter 1. The Sociological Perspective: C. Wright Mills and the Sociological Imagination

Chapter 2. Research Methods: Émile Durkheim and Social Facts

Chapter 3. Social Structure: Anthony Giddens and Structuration

Chapter 4. Culture: Pierre Bourdieu and Cultural Capital

Chapter 5. Social Interaction: Erving Goffman and the Social Self

Chapter 6. Socialization: Annette Lareau and Unequal Childhoods

Chapter 7. Crime: Robert Merton and Structural Strain

Chapter 8. Deviance: Howard S. Becker and Labeling

Chapter 9. Social Stratification I: Karl Marx, Social Class, and Inequality

Chapter 10. Social Stratification II: Max Weber and the Multiple Dimensions of Stratification

Chapter 11. Race: W. E. B. Du Bois and Double Consciousness

Chapter 12. Ethnicity: Alejandro Portes, Immigration, and Segmented Assimilation

Chapter 13. Gender: Dorothy Smith and the Standpoint of Women

Chapter 14. Race, Class, Gender: Patricia Hill Collins and Intersectionality

Chapter 15. Population: Kingsley Davis and the Demographic Transition

Chapter 16. Globalization and Urbanization: Saskia Sassen and the Global City

Notes

References

Illustration Credits